

1. Each section of the agenda is provided 2 minutes to say concisely what they need to say. Only those who have added their items prior to the meeting will have a section on the agenda and be allowed to speak. All additional items will be added to varia and dealt with if there is time.
2. All proposal items on the agenda must include a completed proposal, it can be found on the website under STUDENT COUNCIL.
3. There is time for discussion afterward, but only if selected by the presidents, and only if your hand was up.
4. There will be an emphasis on solutions, an emphasis on what we can do, and no emphasis or time provided for what we cannot do or bickering between members.
5. No one speaks while someone else is speaking. The President determines who is speaking.
6. Late arrivals do not come in and disrupt or jump into the conversation. Sit down quietly and join in at an appropriate time.
7. Follow through on these rules out of mutual respect. In other words, not following these guidelines (teachers included) shows immense disrespect.
